A RESOLUTION HONORING
THAYER'S SELECT MEATS

FOR THEIR MANY YEARS OF SERVICE TO THE CITY OF PARMA, OHIO

WHEREAS THAYER'S SELECT MEATS was the dream of Robert W. Thayer. Having 5 daughters he decided the only way to feed his family was to open his own meat market. On May 6, 1966, Thayer's Select Meats opened their doors. In April of 1967 his 6th daughter was born; and

WHEREAS THAYER'S SELECT MEATS owner Robert W. Thayer had over 20 years of experience in the industry prior to opening his doors. He proudly served the community with quality products, selection, and service to his customers; and

WHEREAS THAYER'S SELECT MEATS had an 80-foot-long fresh meat counter which held USDA Choice Meats which were cut throughout the day to guarantee freshness. They also carried fresh fish and Gerber's Poultry. Their deli offered a nice selection of lunch/picnic meats, cheeses, fresh baked bread, and sausage, fresh and smoked; and

WHEREAS THAYER'S SELECT MEATS Robert's third daughter Margaret Mary worked side by side with her dad until he retired in 1990. One year after, Maureen his sixth daughter graduated from college and decided to join the family business and work with her sister Margaret Mary. Margaret Mary retired in 2010 due to declining health; and

WHEREAS THAYER'S SELECT MEATS Maureen Thayer-Funfgeld is sad about having to close. Maureen now lives on Catawba Island. Her tip she leaves for her customers is "Live every day to your fullest," and "You never know what's going to happen."

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PARMA, COUNTY OF CUYAHOGA AND STATE OF OHIO:

That this entire Council, its President, Sean P. Brennan, and the Administration hereby honor and congratulate Thayer's Select Meats for their many years of service to the residents of the City of Parma.
